

WAR NO MORE

(© Jim Stark 1980)

[chorus – spiritual clapping, 8 claps per line]

Everybody comin' home to reason, everybody sayin' no more war Everybody into people pleasin' everybody sayin' war no more

[1.] I got a vision for tomorrow, I got a plan for today (an' I got) Friends to help me make it all come true, so heed my word when I say

Everybody comin' home to reason, everybody singin' no more war
Everybody into people pleasin' everybody singin' war no more

[2.] What does it take not to feed the people? What does it take not to build that school?
What does it take to spend all our money buildin' bombs? It takes a God damned fool

(Thank heavens) everybody ...

[3.] Over a million bucks a minute, over a billion bucks a day
Even though they can kill us all twenty times or more, they still wanna spend our money that-a-way,

(But I say) everybody ...

[4.] Annihilation could be our future, of that, there ain't no doubt Well nobody voted that monstrosity in, but we're bloody well gonna vote it out

(We're callin') John Lennon, bringin' us home to reason, John Lennon, although he's here no more John Lennon, teachin' people pleasin', John Lennon, singin' no more war

[5.] United Nations gonna be our saviour, it's gonna be a government for the world
Gonna take a little time gonna take a little money too, but we're gonna get that UN flag unfurled

(Thank heavens) everybody comin' on home to reason, everybody singin' no more war
Everybody into people pleasin' everybody singin' war no more Everybody ... everybody ... everybody ...

NOTE: Verse [5.] and its chorus were not included in the recorded version of the song. (Next time it's in.)
